

Dr. Ewe Chun Te

Co-Founder of Acton Academy KL

Dr. Ewe Chun Te, an Imperial College graduate, is the co-founder of Acton Academy Kuala Lumpur (ActonKL) and founder of CreativeTechCamp. With a strong focus on technology and learner-driven education, he champions an approach where students take control of their own learning, emphasizing skills like clear critical thinking and independence. ActonKL's mission to inspire each person to find a calling and change the world centers on real-world skills and character development, aiming to equip young learners for adaptable, thoughtful futures.